The other sensation was the announcement of former State Senator Bamburger, a life long Democrat, that he is not only opposed to the removal of the tariff on sugar but recognizes the need of a tariff "on more things than one to protect the farmers, manufacturers, and workingmen of this country." Senator Bamburger is a prominent business man in Utah, and was assured of the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate if the would accept it. He declined, evidently because he was no longer in sympathy with the policy of his party.

A Marked Difference,
There is a marked difference between the language which Mr. Wilson employs in his discussions with and of the Cerman government and the language which he uses to and of Youngttano Carranza.
